Citizen Petitions and Public Comments

Judge Denise Childress, was present for the meeting and stated she would be back next month highlighting programs such as online court filing systems for veterans, victim of abuse, reporting abuse and following hearings etc.

Gary Grafeman, Owner Cottleville Wine Seller, stated that Alderman Mike Krekeler has been visiting the Cottleville Wine Seller to take his own decibel readings on his personal decibel device in a creepy, rude and unsettling manner, which has frightened some employees. Additionally, he noted that Alderman Krekeler has made very rude phone calls to the business demanding that the music be turned down. Mr. Grafeman, who has been in business for over 20 years, said he had never received complaints until Alderman Krekeler took office and began appearing on or near his property. He has requested that this behavior stop.

Mike Reiter, 712 Hillenkamp, stated he wanted to make the Mayor and other Aldermen aware of an incident that occurred on or about May 23rd, between 7:00 PM and 10:00 PM, during a performance by Petty Cash Junction at Frankie Martins Garden. According to Mr. Reiter, Alderman Mike Krekeler entered his property to take decibel recordings on a personal device, approached his employee the sound engineer, and engaged in an argument. The police responded to the situation and also confirmed they were in compliance. Mr. Reiter noted they monitor their own sound with a calibrated decibel recorder and that while there was a brief peak where the decibels exceeded the limit that night, the noise level did not exceed the limit for the sustained two-minute interval.

Pam and Burton Lee, 5323 5th Street stated they live in the heart of the old town Cottleville area and love it. He further stated the live music is not a nuisance. He stated he cannot hear it in his house. He also stated when they can hear it outside, they enjoy sitting on their own patio listening, having cigar or having guests over. He further stated the businesses that have made an investment in Cottleville and he loves the vibes they have created. Mrs. Lee stated don't hurt or take our live music businesses away.

Alderman Krekeler moved to recess the meeting to speak with the City Attorney at 7:34pm. Alderman Holt seconded the motion. Motion was carried by affirmative votes of four (4) Aldermen. There were no nay votes and no abstentions.

Mayor Thompson gavelled the meeting back into session at 7:41pm. Alderman Krekeler seconded the motion. Motion was carried by affirmative votes of four (4) Aldermen. There were no nay votes and no abstentions.

Alderman Krekeler disputed the allegations above and stated he did not call the Cottleville Wine Seller or go on their property. He further stated that he was standing across the street near the Post Office when he took the live music recordings on his personal decibel reader for Cottleville Wine Seller. Alderman Krekeler also stated two Cottleville Police Officers came to take decibel readings coming from the Cottleville Wine Seller on their department's device. In addition, Alderman Krekeler stated he took decibel readings from Frankie Martins Garden on his personal device from across Highway N in a nearby parking lot on May 23rd and called the police. Upon the officer's arrival on May 23rd Mr. Krekeler moved over to Lorenzo's Plaza to meet officers where they discussed the situation, recorded sound levels and the manner in which the recordings were taken by the officers. Alderman Krekeler stated he did not approach anyone else regarding the same.
