Saturday, July 25, 2026,

The Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee hosted a “Honeysuckle Hack” at Scott A. Lewis Park, located at 1000 Scott A. Lewis Lane, Cottleville, MO 63304, on July 25, 2026.

Committee members and elected officials began arriving for setup at approximately 6:30 a.m., with a light breakfast, volunteer check-in and work beginning at 7:00 a.m.

Committee Members and Elected Officials present included:

- Lea Ann Grimshaw
- Scott Liebel
- Scott Rogers
- Jamie Goodwin
- Alderman Mike Krekeler
- Mayor Stephen Thompson

Discussion was held related to a Honeysuckle Hacks.

Additionally, several community members participated in the Honeysuckle Hack by assisting with hosting, organizing, and providing manual labor to remove the invasive species from the City park.

During the event, volunteers and Parks and Recreation Revisory Committee members used City-supplied and personally supplied tools to remove invasive honeysuckles from a portion of the wooded trails within Scott A. Lewis Park.

The work session was concluded at 11:20 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Amy C. Lewis
Director of Administrative Services
City Clerk, MPCC, CMC, CMO

Chairman Alderman Mike Krekeler
