Rich Francis, City Administrator called roll and those present at roll were:

Alderman Guccione	Present
Alderman Krekeler	Present
Alderman Stiles	Present
Alderman Thompson	Present

There were four (4) members present and none (0) absent.

Staff Reports

A. City Attorney

Drew Weber, City Attorney, was present for the meeting. He discussed Bill 23-006. The Bill revises the City code to update the speed limits for various streets within the City.

He also explained Bills 23-007, 23-009 and 23-011. All three bills had to do with the new regulations relating to recreational marijuana.

B. City Administrator & Public Works Director

Rich Francis, City Administrator, reviewed the consent agenda, public hearings, and other agenda items for tonight's meeting such as:

- Amended stormwater and detentions regulations.
- Revisions to the International Residential Code
- Parking regulations for EV charging locations

Rich discussed the request from Babylon to have outdoor live entertainment. After a brief discussion, all four Alderman were unanimous in agreement to not allow outdoor live entertainment at Babylon.

Rich discussed the possibility of having a City tax for sleeping rooms. After a brief discussion, the Aldermen were unanimous in agreement to place a sleeping room tax of five (5) percent on the November ballot.

Rich discussed Alderman Thompson's concern relating to overnight truck parking behind Battery Outfitters. Drew stated per state statute the owner would have to request the trucks be removed. Alderman Thompson stated he would talk to the owner.

C. Chief of Police

Chief James, Police Chief, discussed the following items.

- Sergeant Jon Araujo was recognized for having served 15 years at Cottleville.
- Mobile ticket equipment and radar equipment has arrived. PD is working on getting it up and ready to use on a daily basis.
- PD is getting ready to supervise the St Pats run.
- Calls for service and arrests are down.

D. City Clerk/Treasurer

No report, City Clerk absent.

Communications from the Alderman

Alderman Krekeler discussed the recent item before the Old Town Commission. He expressed concern about the building at 5360 Main Street that was proposed for Old Town review. He was not happy with the architectural elevations since they had no historic components. After discussion, Rich stated the project was denied and would have to come before the Old Town Commission again for approval. He also stated the project would require Board of Aldermen approval for a Conditional Use Permit.

Alderman Stiles asked if the City could place a moratorium on apartments. Drew Weber advised legally it should not be done.

Communications of the Mayor
